AGREEMENT OF COOPERATION BETWEEN
CHINA COUNCIL FOR THE PROMOTION OF
INTERNATIONAL TRADE (CCPIT)
AND
THE FEDERATION OF JORDANIAN CHAMBERS
OF COMMERCE (FJCC)

The China Council for the Promotion of International Trade and The Federation of Jordanian Chambers of Commerce (here-in-afer referred to as the two parties), desiring to promote the development of the mutual cooperation and economic and trade relationships betwwen CHINA and JORDAN and creating conditions more favourable for further cooperation between their member enterprises, have arrived at the following agreement...

ARTICLE 1

The two parties shall assist associations, companies and organizations within their territory to forge business ties in finding potential partners in trade, economic and industrial cooperation. For that purpose they shall encourage participations in exhibitions, meetings , conferences, and exchange of delegations.

ARTICLE 2

They shall exchange and familiarize themselves with the legislations and regulations in force in each other's country relevant to the foreign economic relations. They shall provide each other with the other party's publications when such publications are useful for this task.

ARTICLE 3

They will publish in their publications the information relating to mutual international supply and demand of merchandise, services and technical cooperation.

ARTICLE 4

The two parties will do all within their power for the elimination of such obstacles which may obstruct continuous both-way flow of goods and the steady increase of reciprocal trade by pointing out these barriers and working at their removal.

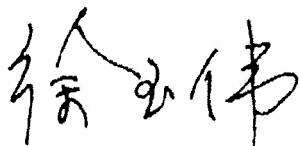

ARTICLE 5

Exchange of information shall be conducted in regard to trade, economic cooperation and services between the two countries.

ARTICLE 6

This agreement enters into force as of the date of signing. It is renewable every year by silent approval. It may be terminated by either part giving six months' advance notice.

This agreement is signed in Amman on the First day of June, 1996, in duplicate.
